

CELP Pricing and Rates: Fall 2021

CELP pricing is divided into separate Tuition and Transportation Fees. Tuition includes food, housing, equipment and instruction. Transportation includes round trip ferry travel from San Pedro to the camp.

CELP Tuition

Peak Pricing: September 13th to October 17th

3-day Program: $292 per student, $146 per chaperone

4-day Program: $412 per student, $206 per chaperone

5-day Program: $512 per student, $256 per chaperone

Off-Peak Pricing: October 18th to November 19th

3-day Program: $276 per student, $138 per chaperone

4-day Program: $390 per student, $195 per chaperone

5-day Program: $492 per student, $246 per chaperone

Ferry Transportation

Ferry transportation rates vary based on the total number of passengers traveling to and from the camp. Total round trip estimates range from $50 to $90 per person. Students and adult chaperones pay the same transportation cost. Transportation rates are locked in when schools submit their final participant count.

CELP Deposit

Deposits for CELP are $2500.00 or 25% of the total tuition fees based on the number of students and chaperones submitted with the contract; whichever is less. The deposit credits towards the final charges.
