

CELP Pricing and Rates: Fall 2020

CELP pricing is divided into separate Tuition and Transportation Fees. Tuition includes food, housing, equipment and instruction. Transportation includes round trip ferry travel from San Pedro to the camp.

CELP Tuition

Peak Pricing: September 14th to October 18th

3-day Program: $288 per student, $144 per chaperone

4-day Program: $406 per student, $203 per chaperone

5-day Program: $506 per student, $253 per chaperone

Off-Peak Pricing: October 19th to November 20th

3-day Program: $268 per student, $134 per chaperone

4-day Program: $386 per student, $193 per chaperone

5-day Program: $484 per student, $242 per chaperone

Ferry Transportation

Ferry transportation rates vary based on the total number of passengers traveling to and from the camp. Total round trip estimates range from $50 to $90 per person. Students and adult chaperones pay the same transportation cost. Transportation rates are locked in when schools submit their final participant count.

CELP Deposit

Deposits for CELP are $2500.00 or 25% of the total tuition fees based on the number of students and chaperones submitted with the contract; whichever is less. The deposit credits towards the final charges.
